

LOCAL NEWS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., Nov. 22, 1876—10:30 a. m.—For the Middle States, increasing warmer southerly winds, falling barometer and cloudy weather, veering to colder west and northwest, with light local snow or rain.

THE REINTERMENT OF BISHOP MEADE.—The Southern Churchman gives the following interesting account of the ceremonies at the reinterment of the remains of Bishop Meade: "Saturday morning last, at eleven o'clock, the reinterment took place in a grave a few feet west of that of Bishop Johns. By a singular coincidence, it was the anniversary of Bishop Meade's birthday, a fact of which those present were reminded by the original plate which had been placed upon the substantial case in which the coffin was enclosed. As less than an hour's notice had been given few could be there, but about half the Seminary students, one of the professors, the rector of Christ Church, Alexandria, the principal of the High School, Mr. Cassius F. Lee, and some others were present. The hymn 'Who are these in bright array' was given out by the Rev. Wm. Meade Dame, and the Rev. Kinloch Nelson said the Lord's Prayer, the Collect for All Saints' Day, and the thanksgiving from the Burial Office.

"The monument which stood in Hollywood has been brought to Alexandria, and before this appears in print will be in place over the new grave. This, with the handsome stones over the remains of the two other bishops and of Dr. and Mrs. Sparrow, will present an imposing appearance. So far no other interments have been made in the new cemetery."

DEATH OF EDWARD C. FLETCHER.—In another column will be found the notice of the death of Edward C. Fletcher, esq., which occurred this morning after an illness of four months. Mr. Fletcher was one of our oldest and most highly respected citizens. For many years he was bookkeeper of the old Potomac Bank, and afterwards of the branch of the Farmer's Bank of Virginia in this city. He was a consistent member of Christ Church, of which he had been a vestryman since 1848. Mr. Fletcher leaves no near relatives except a twin sister, who resided with him to the day of his death.

BURGLAR CAPTURED.—A negro man named Robert Marshall, alias Charles Tigler, alias Robert W. Avery, was arrested in Washington yesterday, charged with participation in numerous burglaries in that city. While on his way to the station house he swallowed a valuable ring, in order to prevent its recovery and use as evidence against him. Marshall is believed to be an escaped convict from the Richmond penitentiary.

THE PROPOSED DEMONSTRATION.—The Jackson Democratic Association of Washington have declined to take part in the proposed demonstration on the 29th inst., on the ground that it might, in the present disturbed condition of affairs, lead to riot and bloodshed. They have also adopted a resolution discountenancing the holding of any political demonstration at present in Washington.

SCHOONER SPOKEN.—The schooner J. J. Moore, which arrived at the ship yard yesterday from Providence, R. I., reports that on the 17th inst., when about twenty-five miles from Fire Island, she spoke the schooner Georgia, of Hatteras, N. C., from Cadiz for Baltimore, short of provisions, and supplied her with some. The Georgia wished to be reported.

SALUTE.—The firing heard about noon today was a salute fired from the Washington Navy Yard upon the embarkation of Admiral Porter and the Board of Naval Officers, who are to visit the different navy yards along the coast. The steamer Tallapoosa, containing the Board, passed here on her way down at about half past twelve o'clock.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—The nightly services still continue in the Baptist Church, on Washington street. Rev. Mr. Flippo, of Baltimore, preached a very solemn and interesting sermon last night, and will preach again to night. The congregation was large and very attentive. Services will be held during the week at 7 1/2 o'clock. Seats are free to all.

CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—Tickets for the concert to-night at Saxepta Hall have been selling rapidly, and a good audience is expected. Among the other attractions heretofore announced the assistance of Mr. Clarke Reynolds, the accomplished pianist, has been secured, and he will give several piano solos.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—Attention is called to the change in days of departure of the New York and Norfolk lines of steamers. The latter will hereafter make only two trips a week instead of three as formerly, and the New York steamers will leave on Saturday instead of Tuesday.

CARRIED TO MARYLAND.—Officers from Prince George's county, Md., arrived here this morning, and took charge of the colored woman Nancy Simms, whose arrest for stealing cabbages was mentioned yesterday. She was immediately conveyed across the river, agreeing to go without awaiting a requisition.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.—Judge Jas. Keith presiding.—Daingerfield vs. Ludwig; ejectment; defendant failing to appear, judgment for plaintiff for possession of premises named in the declaration and for costs.

Court adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

COLLECTOR OF WATER RENTS.—Mr. Geo. H. Markell, who has been appointed Collector of Water Rents by the Board of Directors of the Alexandria Water Company, vice Mr. P. C. Claughton, resigned, gave bond and entered upon the discharge of his duties as such yesterday.

RE-INSTATED.—The time for which Mr. William B. Brown, Superintendent of Police, was suspended by a vote by the Mayor, having expired, he was reinstated this morning and entered upon the discharge of his duties.

Darling you look very bad,
And I fear you're caught by cold;
But Papa says you'll soon be glad—
After you have once been told—
To take Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

It is useless to mention that W. F. Creighton keeps on hand one of the best assorted stocks of dry drug store south of New York and is prepared to let all have Wells' Eureka.

It may be observed that no attempt is made to hunt up out-of-the-way or unknown places to find names to endorse: Simmons' Liver Regulator.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22—2:30 p. m.—Notwithstanding the very apparent intention of the radicals to reverse the majorities for the democratic Presidential electors in the States of South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana, it is possible so to do, the obstacles thrown in their way by the proceedings before the Courts, and the interposition of sound and legal objections by those democrats who are vigilantly watching, as far as they are permitted, the actions of those abominations, the "Returning Boards," and trying to thwart the high-handed attempts at usurpation by the Governor of Florida, thereby causing delay and giving to the people of the North an opportunity to ponder upon the stupendous fraud that is attempted, and the baneful effect that must ensue to the country, are reviving some hope in the minds of those who have almost despaired of seeing the legitimate result of the late election, and the cloud of gloom and despair has slightly lifted, and through the darkness there is a ray of light.

A thousand and one methods whereby the difficulty can be settled by Congress, in the event of the success of the radical plotters, are discussed, and each man has a different view upon the subject.

The meeting of Congress is anxiously expected, and Washington will never probably witness a more exciting time than will ensue upon the assembling of that body. That there will be a lively time, there can be no doubt, but that any action of a revolutionary character will be taken, no one now supposes. The nitro glycerine will be there, however, and a shock may explode it, when the result cannot be told.

A few members of the House are in the city, but next week they will be arriving in numbers. The Speakership will cause some little excitement, at first, and the contest between Messrs. Saylor, of Ohio, Cox, of New York, and Randall, of Pennsylvania, may be animated, but in comparison with the momentous question that agitates the whole people, the selection of a successor to the late Mr. Kerr, will be insignificant.

The Election.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 22—12:50 p. m.—The Supreme Court today issued a peremptory mandamus to the board of State canvassers to issue certificates to the members of the Senate and House of Representatives appearing on the face of the returns to be elected, the final contests in those houses to be decided by the members themselves. This gives in the Senate 15 republicans and 15 democrats, and in the House 60 republicans and 64 democrats—democratic majority on joint ballot, 1. The Legislature counts the votes for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, and elects a U. S. Senator. The court has decided to consider the other contests separately, and will hear argument this afternoon as to counting the electoral vote.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 22.—The Supreme Court has ordered a writ of service of mandamus to issue to the board of canvassers requiring them to give certificates of election in accordance with the report made yesterday. This gives the democrats prima facie a majority of four in the House and 15 of the 33 Senators.

The Franklin.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The steamship Gulf Stream, which arrived at daybreak in Wilmington, N. C., reports that she spoke the Franklin yesterday morning, about 10 o'clock. A heavy gale was blowing. She steamed to within hailing distance of the frigate, which was then about 80 miles from New York. The captain of the Gulf Stream said he conversed with the officer on deck, who asked who was elected President.

The captain was anxious to keep company with the Franklin until the gale subsided in the event of his needing help. He kept her sight for nearly four hours. The officers reported that all on board were well. The captain of the Gulf Stream said the Franklin was laying to close reefed. Her engines were not working. She could easily have been here by this time if she had tried. He says he spelled her name. Everything about her was in first class condition.

Louisiana Bonds.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A New Orleans special says: Foreign bondholders have sent here 3,000,000 of old State bonds to be funded, and their representatives here have addressed a letter to Gov. Kellogg calling for a meeting of the funding board for that purpose. There being two years' interest due upon them and the funds not on hand to pay it, their immediate funding would place the State in default. Considerable anxiety exists in commercial circles respecting the issue of the application, to which Gov. Kellogg has not yet responded.

Election Bets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The betting of withdrawing bets made on the result of the Presidential election, which was accorded yesterday by a prominent stakeholder to those of the betting fraternity who had deposited wagers in his hands was begun on advantage of a large number of bettors. The bets were withdrawn by the mutual consent of those making them.

Murder and Suicide.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A St. Louis dispatch reports that near Keytesville, Mo., Monday night, Emma J. Ford, aged about eighteen, who lived with her parents, was shot and killed by a rejected lover named Joseph B. Brown, who then shot himself dead. The girl's parents objected to Brown's visits and she dismissed him.

Fire.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A fire broke out in Wm. H. Payne's grain elevator, at the foot of East 123d street, early this morning. The elevator and contents were, for the most part, destroyed. The damage to the former is estimated at $200,000 and to the latter at $20,000.

Speaker of the House.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—A Washington dispatch says: "Mr. Randall will be Mr. Saylor's chief competitor for the speakership at the opening of the coming session of Congress."

Naval.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—The Herald's Philadelphia dispatch says the war ships Plymouth and Essex left there yesterday.

Telegraphic Summary.

It is now claimed by the radicals that both of the democratic electors at large, for Connecticut, are ineligible, by reason of their holding United States offices, but the claim is denied.

Couperfeit bonds of the Midway and St. Paul Railroad were put on the New York market to-day.

One hundred thousand tons of Scranton coal were sold at New York to-day. Steamer brought $2.77; grate $2.67; reg. $2.72; stove $3.37; chestnut $2.20.

Mattha White, negro, in a quarrel this morning in New York, fatally cut with a razor a white woman named Lillie Marshall.

Local Brevities.

Lent will begin February 14th, 1877, just two weeks earlier than it put an end to the gayety last year.

The long neglected and much needed repairs to the footway at the head of Queen-street dock were commenced this morning.

Dr. R. W. Withers, the venerable father of Senator R. E. Withers, was so unfortunate, says the Lynchburg News, as to break his leg by a fall, last Friday.

James Richards, colored, the secretary of a Hayes and Wheeler club in Fairfax county, stole some cattle and ran off, carrying with him the funds of the club.

Among the strangers in the city yesterday was Gen. Benjamin Huger, formerly of the U. S. and Confederate armies, who now resides in Fauquier county.

Henry M. Willis has been appointed postmaster at Fort Washington, Prince George's county, Md., vice John C. King, who has not been commissioned. Mr. Willis was removed and Mr. King appointed on the 1st of November, and Mr. King is now reinstated.

FEMALE CHIROPDIST.—Ladies, your special attention is called to Miss Schultz, who is now at the City Hotel removing all kinds of corns, bunions, nails in the flesh, callosities, &c., painless to the sufferer, but only ladies and children are attended, and those needing her aid should call at once, as she only stays till Thursday, at 5:30 p. m. Nothing is of more importance to the preservation of health and comfort than the feet in good condition. nov 21—3t
